

Inaugural Johnny Romano Skate Jam for Make A Wish Hotel Listing

Most of the following hotels are within a mile or so of the skatepark and with in a mile or so of HOBBY AIRPORT (HOU). If you're planning on coming in at Bush Intercontinental (IAH) you have about a 45 minute drive at minimum to the area, and that's with good traffic, it could be as much as 1 ½ hours! If you fly please try to come into Hobby Airport for your own convenience!! All are located in Houston with the zip of 77061 unless otherwise noted. The downtown hotel is about 14 miles away from South Side Skatepark...

Please keep this in mind...Any rooms/hotels that are smoke free and the guys smoke in them, your credit card will be charged a cleaning fee...I did find that some were charged for cleaning fees last year, so be understanding if there is damage or clean fees on your card this is why... Also try to keep the guys from skating in the bathtub...sounds crazy, but they'll charge for that clean up too this year. And we'll not be invited back, like that's ever happen with skateboarders!?! But please try to stay a little civil in the places I've been able to get discounts or we'll loose them for this event...thanks, Damian Hebert,
